

Ryan Van Winkle

A native of Connecticut, Ryan Van Winkle is currently the Reader in Residence at the Scottish Poetry Library and Edinburgh City Libraries. He runs a monthly literary cabaret called 'The Golden Hour' and is an editor at Forest Publications. With his own work appearing in such venues as Northwords Now, The American Poetry Review, and New Writing Scotland, Ryan has led poetry workshops for over ten years, most recently the SUISS Summer School at the University of Edinburgh.

Tamar Yoseloff

A native of New Jersey, Tamar Yoseloff moved to London in 1987. She has been the organiser of the Terrible Beauty reading series at the Troubadour Coffee House, Reviews Editor of Poetry London magazine, and since 2000, Programme Coordinator for The Poetry School. She has published three full collections of poetry, most recently "Fetch" (Salt, 2007), and edited "A Room to Live In: A Kettle's Yard Anthology" (Salt 2007). Previously the Writer in Residence at Magdalene College, Cambridge, she is a regular teacher and workshop leader of poetry.