Dear Life Members,

I am writing this on an absolutely glorious day here in the East of England and marvelling as always at the rich lives and achievements of Clare Hall’s Life Members. In this issue, we spotlight the outstanding work of three of our relatively recent graduates: Aya M. Waller-Bey, Dr William Patrick McClanahan and Dr Keri Wong. The Vice-President and I are also very pleased to introduce our new President’s Office team and hope that you will meet them soon, at least on Zoom if not quite yet in person.

With best wishes,

Professor Alan Short
President of Clare Hall
